Doyeon Noro Kim

Lucid Dream; Dani Jubilee [Details], 2017

Acrylic, Charcoal, soft pastel on canvas, 152x122cm

Doyeon Noro Kim graduated from the London College of Fashion (UAL) with Post Graduate Diploma Masters in Fashion Artefact in 2017. Noro has held multiple group exhibitions in London, Seoul and Stockholm. His personal experiences in psychosis have greatly changed his approach towards art. "Every colour and detail from everyday life felt overwhelmingly pleasurable, and also collectable." He utilises his experiences and estrange episodes during psychosis as a resource for his art. Noro envisages providing beautiful yet fun abstract paintings to his audience. He finds art therapeutic pleasurable and addictive. Within each of his creations, he never loses the essence of Fashion Illustration. Audiences are invited to interact with his art and think outside the box to see what is going on.
